Henrietta Parks Information

Each year, Genesee Valley Recreation and Park Society recognizes the remarkable accomplishments of individuals and agencies that advance the mission of Parks and Recreation in our region of New York State. This year, Henrietta Parks and Recreation is proud to say that we have three very deserving award winners in our community.

Gary Junge, long time Chairperson of the Henrietta Parks and Recreation Advisory Board and President of the Rush-Henrietta Athletic Association, was honored with the Distinguished Citizen Award. Gary's dedication to sharing his love of baseball has led to the establishment of one of the finest baseball and softball facilities in the area. Every year, hundreds of young athletes play and learn at the RHAA complex, thanks in large part to Gary's efforts. As Chairperson of the Advisory Board, Gary was instrumental in bringing the vision of the Henrietta Recreation Center to fruition. In addition to his work promoting recreation, Gary serves on the Town of Henrietta Board of Assessment Review and he is very active in the American Legion Post 1151, volunteering at events and helping with fundraising efforts. He is indeed a Distinguished Citizen of the Henrietta community.

Henrietta Senior Center Coordinator, Shelly Gorino, is the 2023 recipient of the Outstanding Service Award. Over the years, Shelly has worked to make the Henrietta Senior Center so much more than a place to come for lunch. Her kind and caring nature puts newcomers at ease and makes everyone feel welcome. Shelly is a true advocate for local seniors. Under her guidance, the Senior Center has seen two expansions, as well as the addition of an outdoor gazebo and bocce court. This year, she worked with Town officials to add a generator, so that seniors will have a place to come during a power outage. Today, the Senior Center is a place to exercise, socialize, learn something new, and celebrate with friends. Shelly's hard work and leadership have made the Henrietta Senior Center a gem of the community.

If you live in Henrietta, you surely are familiar with JoJo's Cool Bus. Brian and Joanne White purchased JoJo's Cool Bus ice cream truck in 2020, and never looked back. They have been a wonderful partner to Henrietta Parks and Recreation, visiting camps and events throughout the warmer months and lending a helping hand whenever needed. This winter, while the bus is in storage, they will be donating their time, talent and resources to build an accessible picnic table for the newly established Chapman's Corner Park. For their selfless dedication to community, JoJo's Cool Bus has been awarded the Outstanding Corporate Partnership Ward.

The Henrietta Recreation Department truly appreciates the support and dedication of these individuals. We are very fortunate to have them in our community.
